Congressman visits Greater Alliance

On Tuesday, Aug. 9, Congressman Scott Garrett sat with senior management from Greater Alliance to discuss the recent series of events in Washington and his thoughts on the needs of his constituents. Greater Alliance briefed the Congressman on what the credit union is doing to help to provide value for the average family, individual or business in today's rollercoaster economy.

"Given today's economic turmoil, Greater Alliance is better equipped and has positioned itself to help everyone in Bergen and Passaic Counties save money and pay less for any loans they may need," stated Joe Pedone, VP of new business development.

Congressman Garrett then proceeded to provide senior management with a brief overview on his position regarding recent debt issues and what he believes could help the economy going forward. We look forward to future visits to our Chamber membership from Congressman Garrett and other federal, State and local legislators.
